Enterprise—Attention is called again to the card signed Enterprise. Here is an opportunity for some good man from this section.

Episcopal Convocation—The Convocation of South West Virginia will hold its 2nd semi-annual session for 1868 in Emmanuel Church, of our town, on Wednesday, the 28th instant. This body is composed of the following Clergy and Laymen, viz: Rev. Wm. N.
Pendleton D. D., of Lexington; Rev.
Henderson Suter, of St. Marks, Lynchburg; Rev. W. H. Pendleton, of Bedford; Rev. J. A. Whorton, St. John, Liberty; Rev. E. H. Ingle, of St. Johns Big Lick, and Rev. L. B. Whorton, of St. Thomas, Abingdon; Gen. Smith, of Lexington; Geo. F. Taylor, Esq., of Big Lick, and I. C. Fowler, of Goodson. The clerical members are all expected to be present. The Convocation Sermon will be preached by Rev. C. P.
Rodger, and Rev. E. H. Ingle will preach a sermon on worldy conformity.

Grape Vines—Grape vines in considerable variety and of the most approved kind can now be had of Mr. E.
B. McElhaney. See his advertisement. The time for planting is near at hand, and ten years from to day those who have not provided for a crop of grapes will regret it. Encourage your own people.

Norfolk Convention—We learn from the Lynchburg Republican that certificates of appointment and letters of invitation to Norfolk will be good between the 11th and 30th.

Miss Lucy C. Payne, late of Charlottesville, is now, in connection with Mrs. Chancourneau's school, giving in instructions on the Piano, the Violin and vocal music. She comes highly recommended and has met with great success.

The Misses Luvalo & Peerman, at the V. G. House, have just received a large lot of winter bonnets.

Remember, the White Wire Clothes Lines for sale by Mr. L. H. Hogan, at Buckner's. This article is a success-and there are a few left.

Mr. Roller—In a recent number of the News we gave publicity to a report that a Mr. Roller, of Sullivan county, Tenn., had robbed an old man of a certain amount of money. It affords us pleasure to note that there is not a word of truth in the matter, which is prejudicial to the good character of that gentleman.
